In the backyard of the tavern guests are welcome with mulled wine or brandy and Hungarian hot crackling scones. Location is the Tanya Csárda (Farm Tavern) some kilometres far from Budapest. The facility is located on a 50 acres field; its picturesque environment envisions the romantic feeling of the Great Plain.

The main attraction begins, it is winter country feast producing fresh meat and making meat dishes in traditional Hungarian way. All the participants get an apron, so guests who want to take a fancy to assist in the meat and food preparation can work with us.

Some foretastes of the meals following the „ceremony“:

Roasted blood with onion, roasted liver, potatoes boiled in their skin, mixed pickles from Vecsés, fresh bread bap, a' la carte drinks or guests can choose from the drink package on demand.

Drink consumption is not included in price; it is paid on a separated bill based on actual consumption.

In the kitchen, the further process is going on. Meat is cut into pieces, ground, get spices, various sausages are wrapped. Our guests can participate and follow how to get the lunch ready. During slaughtering our guests make the process in groups which are evaluated by our chef. Following this hard work, we invite our guests for a deserts lunch serving fresh made sausages, roast joint, grinded meat.

After a little rest the showing and leading the Lipizzaner stud follows, then with a short walk our guests have a seat on the tribune from where they can admire a real Hungarian horse show.

The show of the "Pusztá Ötös" coach and five follows introducing and leading the Lipizzaner stud. Afterward horse-herds present their brilliant skills presenting several field events.
